Captain Kevin Sullivan Sworn in as Massachusetts Police Association President

The Lowell Police Department (LPD) is proud to announce that LPD Captain Kevin Sullivan will be sworn in today as the President of the Massachusetts Police Association. Captain Sullivan is a third generation police officer. His father, John F. Sullivan Jr. retired as a Sergeant in 1996 from the Lowell Police Department and his grandfather John F. Sullivan was the Chief in Westford for 30 years. Additionally, John Sullivan Jr's brother, George Sullivan, also began his career at the Westford Police Department. He transferred to the LPD in 1973 and retired in 1998. Like his father, grandfather and uncle, Captain Sullivan began his career in the town of Westford in 1987. He transferred to the LPD in 1992 and gained experience in many facets of the organization. Captain Sullivan has worked in Investigations, the Gang Unit and Professional Standards. Once he was promoted to Captain in 2006, he worked as a Sector Captain, Shift Commander and is now Captain of the Criminal Investigations Bureau. Captain Sullivan graduated from the FBI National Academy in 2009 and has been serving on the MPA executive board since 2002. The LPD is very proud of his accomplishments and knows that he will be an asset to the MPA serving as President.
